1920s & Great Depression

- 6 Journalists who exposed corruption and tried to convince the public of a need for reform.
- The president that introduced the New Deal during the Great Depression.
- The date of the stock market crash and the start of the Great Depression.
- The Roosevelt administration's plan for dealing with the Great Depression.
- Process by which voters can put a bill directly before thé legislature..
- Process by which voters choose from a pool of candidates who will represent them in the general election.
- 17 Purchasing stock with a down payment of a portion of the full value and paying the rest at a later date.
- 18 President of the United States at the start of the Great Depression.
- Process by which voters can remove an elected official from office.
- 20 Government program that paid farmers not to grow certain crops.

- Insured personal accounts in banks approved by the federal government.
- The name given for the day the stock market crashed and the start of the Great Depression.
- Government projects that are designed for public use.
 Process by which people directly vote for a bill.
- Type of government programs designed to prevent a depression from happening again.
- The government practice of spending more money than is coming in with taxes.
- Type of government programs designed to stabilize the economy after the stock market crashed. The single historical event that pulled the United
- States out of the Great Depression.
- Highest annual average of unemployment during the Great Depression.
- Type of government programs designed to help the needv.