

The best way to avoid being subjected to fake news is to rely on trusted sources of information. There is no objective metric of trustworthiness. Most of the sites you will see listed made their way onto this list because they have developed a solid reputation for unbiased reporting that is not politically motivated. The list of sources below has been chosen based on their standards of integrity and reliability of information. These are obviously not the only places for information but you need to be cautious with any site to ensure that the information you gather is credible and based on sound research.
